Check out the manuals page to better understand the bar setup.

For 2010, the depower rope AND the depower line that goes through the bar is one unique piece. In previous years, the depower line was sold separately and was independent from the depower rope. You can get the depower line + depower rope and strap by clicking here.

Depower Strap is the rope with the red depower strap that goes with the clam cleat.

Depower rope/strap and Clam Cleat are sold separately and they are valid for Bandit 1,2. For Bandit 3, the depower line and depower rope are sold in one piece.
